A SLIGHT CHANGE BUT A WELCOMED CONVENIENCE!

As many parishioners are aware, our parish has been live-streaming our 12 Noon Sunday Mass. Unfortunately, on several recent occasions we experienced technical difficulties that prevented us from properly live-streaming our Mass. In an effort to better serve our parishioners who are not yet comfortable joining us in person for Mass, as well as assuring our Mass will be consistently available to viewers, we are now taping our 5:00pm Saturday evening Mass, which will be available for viewing after 8:00pm on Saturday evening. The Mass will not be available for live-streaming at 5:00pm Saturday evening, but will be available, for your convenience anytime after 8:00pm on Saturday evening.

Just a reminder, the address for the Mass, which lists all the Masses we have recorded thus far, is:
bit.ly/saintephrembensalem

A Review of the Guidelines and Restrictions in Place as We Celebrate In-Person Mass:

While we have adjusted some of the restrictions in our Church, several of our restrictions will remain in place for the foreseeable future.

During the 'green phase':

-We still expect all those joining us for Mass to wear a face mask.

-We will continue to social distance in the church, by sitting only in the designated pews.

-Our maintenance staff will continue sanitizing the Church pews and other areas of the church on a regular basis.

-We will continue to use only one set of doors for entrance into the Church, and one set of doors to exit the Church.

Parishioners are welcome to join us for our 12 Noon Mass, as well as the Saturday 5 PM Vigil, Sunday 7:30 AM and Sunday 10:30 AM Masses.

Limited singing has been reintroduced to our Liturgies. For the time being, as a congregation, we will only sing, the Responsorial Psalm, and the Mass parts.

GOT A MISSAL?

NEED A MISSAL?

Several parishioners have inquired if they would be able to take a missal from Church and bring it back and forth with them to Mass to aid them in following the readings. Parishioners are welcome to stop by the sacristy after any weekday Mass or Sunday Mass and take a missal for your personal use. Missals may not be left in Church at any time; any missals left in Church pews will be thrown away. If you are interested in taking a missal home with you (that you will bring to Church during Mass and bring home with you each time) please stop by the sacristy and pick one up.

ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING OUR BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

Due to the situation which Covid-19 places upon us at this time, St. Ephrem Parish will not be available for 'formal' support group meetings. We will revisit this as the weeks continue, and, hopefully, our Spring Group will begin. Let's pray for that!

However, in light of the reality that grieving cannot be 'postponed", I will be available to meet privately with anyone who wishes and be grateful to offer any support. You can contact me at 215-638-4332. Please leave a message and I will return your call.

The Usher

An elderly woman walked into the local country church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps.

"Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely.

"The front row, please," she answered.

"You really don't want to do that," the usher said. "The pastor is really boring."

"Do you happen to know who I am?" the woman inquired.

"No," he said.

"I'm the Pastor's mother," she replied indignantly.

"Do you know who I am?" he asked.

"No," she said.

"Good," he answered.

"The Littlest Things Matter"

Dr. Anthony Mazzarelli, an ER physician at Cooper Hospital, tells this story.

One day when he was working, he watched as nurses examined a woman– 9 months pregnant– who hadn't felt her baby move in a few hours. Mazzarelli knew it was not unusual for the OB triage nurse to have trouble finding a heartbeat. He was impressed by her calm, her attempt to stay upbeat for the mother. She called for an ultrasound machine.

"It took only a few seconds before the worst-case scenario was obvious even to me. There was no heartbeat in that fully formed baby," Mazzarelli said.

"I will never forget the absolute sorrow at that moment."

The mother was Mazzarelli's wife, a Cooper cardiologist. The dead child was his baby.

He told the story not to convey how it feels to lose a child, but to emphasize the power of small, human gestures on that horrible day, January 26, 2013, which he has relived, in memory, "hundreds, if not thousands, of times."

He tries to keep that in mind during his own interactions with patients.

"The littlest things matter in those situations, I now realize, not only for that moment, but for all the times that the memories of those moments are replayed," said Mazzarelli.

"The patients and families may not remember your name or your face, but they absolutely will not forget even the smallest thing you did in those moments because they will not forget the memory of what they were feeling".

This story was published in the 10/26/16 Inquirer.

It is one of a series of stories told by physicians to medical students to inspire them to always be compassionate.
